March 12, 2018

Dear Parents and Guardians:

This Wednesday, March 14th marks the one month anniversary of the tragic event in Parkland Florida, where 17 lives were lost. On March 14, 2018 at 10:00 am the Alder Avenue Middle School Eagles will be participating in a brief remembrance assembly in our back courtyard to show our support for our fellow Eagles at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. A student council member will read the names of the 17 victims. Members of the Band / Chorus will sing a song "Simple Gifts" and in closing one of our teachers will play the bagpipes. Please note that this is a school sponsored event with all code of conduct rules in effect and is intended solely to remember the victims of school violence.

The plan has been approved by district administration and includes building administration, staff and security. We look forward to a meaningful and safe event for the entire student body as we show support for Marjory Stoneman High School and remember the victims.

Sincerely,

Joe Marinelli, Principal
